MRS. KEMBLE'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY.

Now ready, at all Libraries, in 3 vols., crown 8vo, 32s.

A SECOND EDITION OF FANNY KEMBLE'S RECORDS OF LATER LIFE.

"No reader with a taste for memoirs will lay down this book without a lively sense of enjoyment." Pall Mall Gazette.

"Fanny Kemble is a charming letter-writer—observant, vivacious, witty too at times, and so transparently real that every letter is a distinct revelation of her genuine self." St. James's Gazette.

In 1 vol., crown 8vo, with Two Illustrations, price 7s. 6d.

A POPULAR EDITION OF

THE CORAL LANDS of the PACIFIC. By H. STONEHEWER COOPER. Being an Account of all the Inhabited Islands of the Pacific, their Peoples, and their Products. [Immediately.]

*The New Edition has been revised by the Author with great care, and the information brought down to the latest date.

"For completeness as a tableau of the scenery and resources, the life, manners, and customs, of these islands, and particularly of the Fiji group, which have of late years occupied so much attention, Mr. Cooper's work is perhaps without a rival, and his information appears to be brought down to very recent dates. His chapters are written in a lively style; but they are, nevertheless, inspired throughout by the purpose of the book."—Daily News.

POPULAR NEW NOVELS

AT ALL THE LIBRARIES.

ROYAL ANGUS. By Lord JAMES DOUGLAS. In 2 vols., crown 8vo.

A BALL-ROOM REPENTANCE. By Mrs. ANNIE EDWARDS, Author of "Ought We to Visit Her?" &c. In 2 vols., crown 8vo.

IN A CATHEDRAL CITY. By BERTHA THOMAS, Author of "The Violin Player," &c. In 2 vols., crown 8vo.

"A novel which cannot fail to take firm hold of the first order of novel readers, and to win from them such ready tribute of approval as, being greater than criticism, includes it. The design is quite worthy of George Eliot, whose faculty of laying down a scheme and adhering to it is shared in a remarkable degree by this author."—Daily News.

A PRODIGAL'S PROGRESS. By FRANK BARRETT, Author of "Lieutenant Barnabas," &c. In 3 vols., crown 8vo.

"Lieutenant Barnabas" was better than most contemporary novels, and so is "A Prodigal's Progress," if only because of the healthy and sturdy moral portraiture, because the author has a charming heroine, and because he has an excellent command of fresh and lively dialogue." Saturday Review.

Also, immediately, Popular Edition of LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP.

By Mrs. ALEXANDER,
Author of

THE WOOLING O'T. WHICH SHALL IT BE? HER DEAREST FOE.

Each to be obtained separately at all Booksellers', in crown 8vo, price 6s.

RICHARD BENTLEY & SON,

HURST & BLACKETT'S NEW NOVELS.

AT ALL LIBRARIES.

DAISY BERESFORD. By CATHARINE CHILDAIR, Author of "The Future Marquis." 3 vols.

FORTUNE'S MARRIAGE. By

GEORGIANA M. CRAIK, Author of "Dorcas," &c. 3 vols.
"Fortune's Marriage" is written in a serene and temperate spirit that reminds us of Jane Austen; but, though the book is quiet, it is not without its pathos. The story is well told, and is not destitute of charm." Academy.

REDEEMED. By Shirley Smith,

Author of "All for Herself," &c. 3 vols.
"Redeemed" will interest its readers, for it has no lack of incident and pathos. Some of the characters are very natural and prepossessing." Athenaeum.

"This interesting story contains much that is original, both in the construction of the plot and in the characters introduced. It is considerably above the average."—John Bull.
"This well-told story is both interesting and healthy. All the characters are firmly and consistently drawn."—Academy.

A FAITHFUL LOVER. By Mrs.

MACQUOID, Author of "Patty," &c. 3 vols.

"The difference between English and French marriage customs is a favourite topic with lady novelists. Mrs. Macquoid has hit upon a method of illustrating it which has some claims to originality."—Athenaeum.
"In 'A Faithful Lover' Mrs. Macquoid has hit on a comparatively unworked field in fiction. The story is very gracefully and pleasantly told. The chief merit of the book consists in the character of Esau Ramsay, the recluse."—Academy.

"A pretty, graceful, and agreeable novel, in which there is plenty of charming portraiture and abundance of love-making. Some of the sketches are exquisite."—Illustrated London News.

DONOVAN. By Edna Lyall,

Author of "Won by Waiting," 3 vols.

"Donovan" is a good story of its kind. Donovan's character is developed with patience, and the reader will find in him a good deal to like."—Athenaeum.
"A novel of sterling merit, healthy in tone, and interesting in detail. Miss Lyall tells her story with vigour and intelligence. It is well written throughout."—Academy.

IRIS. By Mrs. Randolph, Author

of "Gentianella," &c. 3 vols.

"Mrs. Randolph's 'Iris' has all the pleasant characteristics which are peculiar to the writer. As usual, the story is refined, agreeable, and interesting throughout."—John Bull.

THE MERCHANT PRINCE. By

JOHN BERWICK HAWWOOD, Author of "Lady Flavia," "The Tenth Earl," &c. 3 vols.

HURST & BLACKETT'S SIX SHILLING NOVELS.

HIS LITTLE MOTHER, AND OTHER TALES.

By the AUTHOR of "JOHN HALIFAX, GENTLEMAN."

"This is an interesting book, written in a pleasant manner, and full of shrewd observation and kindly feeling. It is a book that will be read with interest, and that cannot be lightly forgotten."—St. James's Gazette.

"We cordially recommend 'His Little Mother.' The story is most affecting. The volume is full of lofty sentiments and noble aspirations, and none can help feeling better after its perusal."—Court Journal.

MY LORD and MY LADY.

By Mrs. FORRESTER,
Author of "Viva," "Mignon," &c.

"This novel will take a high place among the successes of the season. It is as fresh a novel as is interesting, as attractive as it is realistically true, as full of novelty of presentation as it is of close study and observation of life."—World.

"A very capital novel. The great charm about it is that Mrs. Forrester is quite at home in the society which she describes. It is a book to read." Standard.

SOPHY; OR, THE ADVENTURES OF A SAVAGE.

By VIOLET FANE,
Author of "Densil Place," &c.

"Sophy" is the clever and original work of a clever woman. Its merits are of a strikingly unusual kind. It is charged throughout with the strongest human interest. It is, in a word, a novel that will make its mark."—World.

"This novel is as amusing, piquant, droll, and suggestive as it can be. It overflows with humour, and there are wanting touches of genuine feeling. To considerable imaginative power, the writer joins keen observation." Daily News.

STRICTLY TIED UP.

By the Right Hon. A. J. B. BERESFORD HOPE, M.P.

"A clever story. In 'Strictly Tied Up' we have vigorous sketches of life in very different circumstances and conditions. We have a novel, besides, which may be read with profit as well as pleasure."—Times.

"Strictly Tied Up" is entertaining. It is in every sense a novel conceived in a light and happy vein. The scheme of the story is well proportioned, and worked out in all its complications with much care and skill." Athenaeum.

London: HURST & BLACKETT, 13, Great Marlborough Street.

SAMPSON LOW, MARSTON, & CO.'S NEW BOOKS.

On Thursday next, crown 8vo, boards, 2s. 6d.

EGYPT and its KHEDIVES.

By EDWIN DE LEON.

Illustrated.

"The above Work is a Revised and Abbreviated Edition of 'THE KHEDIVES OF EGYPT,' published a few years ago. The Author has also added a Chapter bringing all necessary information down to the day of going to press."

EGYPT. By Stanley Lane-Poole.

Cloth limp, with Coloured Map and Illustrations, 3s. 6d.

"To those who require a handbook to Egypt as it is at the present day, Mr. Stanley Lane-Poole's little work will be very welcome. It is a clearly written account of the geography and physical aspects of the people and their daily life, and of the modern history, economics, and administration of the country."—Saturday Review.

"It is clear, well written, and well compiled. . . . Mr. Lane-Poole has given a most excellent account of the Fellah and of the Egyptian citizen."—Athenaeum.

"Mr. Lane-Poole knows Egypt well, and what he has to say about it is extremely interesting."—Scotsman.

"Mr. Lane-Poole has contrived to tell in a small space all that any reader who is not a specialist need seek to know. His style is bright, concise, and straightforward; and in the art of conveying a general effect by means of a few sharp touches he is peculiarly successful."—Academy.
